Table of contents

First and foremost, welcome to Building Stack! We're happy to see that you're trying to register to the app.

If your Property Manager has not yet sent you a welcome e-mail but you want to log in for the first time so you can get started, you'll need to start by making sure that the following is already configured in your profile:

- Your email

- Your phone number

Building Stack offers two ways to register: using your phone number (detailed below) or using the 'Forgot Password' feature with your email.

Set password

Welcome Sirap Morf ! Create your Building Stack password to complete your registration.

Registering using the 'Forgot Password' feature

1. Open the Website: Visit the Building Stack mobile application webpage ([URL]).
2. Access the Forgot Password Section: Locate and click on the 'Forgot Password' link on the page.
3. Enter Your Email: On the next page that appears, input your email address and select 'Next.'
4. Check Your Inbox: After completing step 3, an email will be sent to your inbox:
 - Welcome Email: If you have not yet registered, a welcome email will be generated allowing you to register and set up your new account.
 - Password Reset Email: If your profile is already associated with the provided email, you will receive a reset password email to set or update your login credentials.

What do I do if I run into this error?

This error will either happen if the following things come up:

- The phone number you've entered during step 2 does not match what's in your profile with your Property Management team
- The email in your profile is not added (or added with typos)
- You're not associated to an active or upcoming lease yet.

Account activation

We can't find an account associated with this number.

You can try a different number or contact your building management to resolve your problem.

Request a new tenant login

The next step would be to reach out to your Property Management team so they can correct the information associated to your account or provide you further insight on as of when you'll be able to register.

Ensure you check your spam or junk folder if the email doesn't appear in your inbox.
